

presents

Violin Classical Favorites

A Concert with Leonid Levin

Enjoy an afternoon of classical, virtuoso, and romantic selections performed by renowned violinist Leonid Levin. A native of Russia and graduate of Moscow Gnesin Academy, Levin immigrated to the United States and became concertmaster of the Savannah and Omaha Symphony Orchestras and was a winner at the International Violin Competition in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Library Hours

Mon. 10-8
Tues. 1-6
Wed/Fri. 10-6
Thur. 1-8
Sat. 10-5:30
Sun. closed

Thursday, November 12

3:00 p.m.

Mitchell-Linden

29-42 Union Street, Flushing

718-539-2330

Bus: Q14, Q16, Q20A/Q20B, Q44

Admission is free. www.queenslibrary.org

This program is funded by fees collected by Queens Library.

Queens Library is an independent, not-for-profit corporation and is not affiliated with any other library system.

2316-9/09