

MORE THAN A DREAM: A CELEBRATION OF MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. WITH MILTON SUGGS

While the importance of Dr. King's life and work is recognized around the world, he is mostly recognized for his "I Have A Dream" speech given at the 1963 March on Washington. This program gives a multi-dimensional look at Dr. King's ministry by pairing recorded excerpts of his many other speeches and sermons with arrangements of protest songs and original music by Milton Suggs based on his words.

Milton Suggs has a voice that commands attention. Whether it's on record or in concert, this jazz vocalist takes inspiration from such music legends as diverse as Marvin Gaye, Eddie Jefferson and Joe Williams.
