Can you imagine the transformation from a private home into a museum? Take a glimpse into the world at 1 East 70th Street to which the entire public shall forever have access. This program is for children 9-14 years old. Space is limited for all sessions. This program is on a first-come, first-served basis.

Culture Pass is supported by generous funding from The New York Community Trust, Charles H. Revson Foundation, Stavros Niarchos Foundation, and the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs.
