

MEMORIES OF MIGRATION: MAKING A TALKING FAMILY STORY QUILT

Queens Library is offering a very special maker workshop for family members from different generations who want to partner up to tell their family's migration story in a creative way. This six session workshop will lead family partners through storytelling, simple electronics and textile art making. The result will be a talking story quilt that the Fresh Meadows Community Library will exhibit to the public. We expect public interest in this creative storytelling artwork and participants will take home a variety of new skills along with the artwork they create. Registration is limited. Call the Fresh Meadows Library to sign up 718-454-7272

ADMISSION IS FREE
