A CELEBRATION OF PAKISTAN INDEPENDENCE DAY
with Music, Food, and a Fun Lecture

Bazah Roohi, an active member of the Pakistani community and the head of the American Council of Minority Women [ACMW], will give a short and fun lecture for children on the history of Pakistan, followed by a short quiz by KAWISH TV. Let’s see how much you learn!

Father and son team Aziz and Saboor Peerzada will perform patriotic and traditional songs on the tabla and harmonium. Aziz has played in Rawalpindi and Islamabad on Pakistani radio, TV, and stage. His son Saboor has accompanied him in his presentations across the United States.

As a special treat, we will cap off the program with a short workshop on the traditional Pakistani dish of chick peas chaat and yogurt.*

FREE ADMISSION
*Food will be served on a first-come, first-served basis. Queens Public Library is not responsible for any adverse reaction or illness as a result of tasting.

Saturday, August 10, 1-4 pm
FRESH MEADOWS
193-20 Horace Harding Expressway • (718) 454-7272 • Q17, Q30, Q88

This Program Is Made Possible With Generous Support From The National Endowment For The Humanities And The Hearst Foundation.
FRESH MEADOWS
NEW AMERICANS PROGRAM

KOENZ PUBLISHING
NEW AMERICANS PROGRAM

QUEENS PUBLIC LIBRARY

Pakistani in our program, along with the celebration of Pakistan's Independence Day, will have music, food, and a lively discussion. A Pakistani member of the community, and the American Council of Minority Women (minority women's council) will be present. She will discuss the history of Pakistan, followed by a brief quiz, and then we will have a special event where we will sample traditional Pakistani food with a short workshop on chat and dahi.

The quiz will be about Pakistani music and culture, and we will have a special event where we will have a quiz about Pakistani music and culture.

For more information, please visit Queenslibrary.org.

Co-sponsored by the National Endowment for the Humanities and Heirs Foundation.