As they work, take notes of which words they know and which were new. T works with lowest level learners and introduces 5 basic places. Learners practice saying names and writing words. Provide neighborhood place/word cards for lowest level to practice with.
3. Post the lists on the wall. Ask groups to travel from list to list to add new words. Give each lower level learner 4 picture cards. Ask lower levels to place the picture cards next to words on the chart.
4. Go over any important community words they may not have mentioned.

Wrap Up/Assessment
